Function list of Loan Account Management System (LAMS)

Interface
communication	 Customized API to accept query from TransUnion decision edge about the existence of the loan account in LAMS Customized API to stimulate repayment schedule based on TransUnion decision Edge information Customized API to accept approved / rejected loan application from TransUnion 's decision edge and create loan account in LAMS
Frontend Languages	-Support Traditional Chinese in web application
LAMS Application / Acquisition module	-Accept approved loan application and create loan account in LAMS -Accept rejected loan application for future use
LAMS Account Management module	-Accept additional information to be filled up / modified on top of the application from TU (up to 10 fields)
LAMS Loan Disbursement	 Flow of Loan Disbursement TU sends an application to LAMS LAMS saves the customer and loan record, and turns all AIP case to "pending drawdown" status When borrower meet CS to confirm all the details (personal particular, interest rate, drawdown date, initial payment date, monthly repayment date may change at this stage), CS generates a contract for borrower to sign and LAMS will print the repayment schedule and saved the loan record. When drawdown is ready, LAMS allows CS team to save the drawdown or loan disbursement details into the system, the details includes: -loan amount -date -channel of distribution
LAMS Repayment module	-Accept Customer service team to input payment record into the system (e.g. cash, cheque no. ,bank no. and other supporting information) - Repayment Management (Pre-defined during the application stage)
	stage) > Standard repayment • 息隨本減 – Instalment loan • 先息後本 – Term loan

	• 一次清還 – Balloon repayment
	• 2 / 4 weeks payment term
	> Support Early / Partial repayment > Interest only repayment (tenor extension – need to manage in account management page)
LAMS	-Loan Position Report
Reporting	-Income Report
module	-Account Receivable (AR) Report
	-Drawdown report
	-Overdue report (aging reports)
	-Loan repayment schedule for customer service officer
	-Watch list for high value loans